

SPECIAL SEMINAR

Friday, September 17 | 2:30 p.m. | B02 Coordinated Science Lab

HONG KONG POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY ASSISTANT PROFESSOR RECRUITMENT TALK

The Hong Kong Polytechnic University is the largest government-funded university in Hong Kong. The University offers a wide range of programs up to doctoral level and is fully committed to academic excellence in a professional context with a view to design, develop and deliver application-oriented education and training program. The language of instruction is English.

In anticipation of increased of student enrollment, the university plans to recruit approximately one hundred new faculty members in the next several years. Many of the recruits will be at the assistant professor level. Doctoral students and postdoctoral fellows who are interested in seeking an academic career in Hong Kong are encouraged to attend this talk.

Philip C. H. Chan
Deputy President and Provost
Hong Kong Polytechnic University

Philip C. H. Chan received his master's and PhD degrees from ECE ILLINOIS. He worked at Intel from 1981 to 1991. In 1991, he joined Hong Kong University of Science and Technology as a founding faculty member. In March 2010 he became Deputy President and Provost of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, overseeing all academic and research activities at the university. Dr. Chan is on campus to receive a 2010 Distinguished Alumni Award from ECE ILLINOIS.

Presented by ECE ILLINOIS