

Deloitte.

Global Universities Program
Fast track your career

In this stage of your career,
the options are endless

Can I kick-start my career in a high growth economy while still being near family and friends? With Deloitte, you can!

Our Global Universities Program (GUP) provides a unique opportunity for you to launch your career in your home country or a country of interest (where you are eligible to work and are fluent in the local language).

You are at the center of the GUP:

- Our hiring process will elevate your application to priority status over other international students applying in your home country.
- You will have direct access to Deloitte's hiring professionals in your home country and your country of study while interviewing from your University.
- You will have a unique opportunity to work in a high growth market offering an exceptional career path and development prospects.

New paths to new heights.
The journey starts here.
