

Welcome to join E-PLUS FOR K-12 BFSU

About BFSU

Beijing Foreign Studies University (BFSU) is a key university affiliated to the Ministry of Education (MOE) and offers the largest number of language learning programs and other interdisciplinary studies in China. The university has been China's principal base offering excellent training and degree programs in foreign relations, foreign trade, foreign culture and foreign language learning and teaching. The university has turned out tens of thousands of graduates with high levels of proficiency in foreign languages, foreign relations or related areas in her history of seventy years. The university has won the name of "cradle for diplomats" in China thanks to her 400 outstanding graduates serving the country as ambassadors.

About FLTRP

Founded in 1979 by Beijing Foreign Studies University, the Foreign Language Teaching and Research Press (FLTRP) has since grown into the largest ELT publisher and university press in China, ranking 3rd in sales turnover among all the publishing houses in China. FLTRP publishes in more than 30 languages, with the majority of its publications in English and an increasing number of works in Chinese.

About E-PLUS FOR K-12 BFSU

BFSU English Academy for K-12 is a young learner English training institute run by the university. It is a major national leading figure in the field of English language education for young learners. Backed by the mother university, Beijing Foreign Studies University, the academy is able to offer English language programs for 4-18 year olds over the years. Its goal is to establish the best young learner English academy in the country. It has first-rate facilities, small classes (max. 15), and a friendly, English-speaking faculty. We sincerely welcome friends from all over the world to teach kids English here as an instructor.

Our campus

Our class

Our students and teacher are wrapping “Zongzi” together to celebrate the Dragon Festival

Our teacher is instructing students to make eastern egg

Our students are learning table manners from our foreign teachers

Our activities

Our students and teachers are celebrating Christmas Day together

Our foreign teachers and Chinese staff are hiking at Baiquan Mountain

The photos of your temporary dormitory:

Join us! Enjoy the life and work in China!